President's Welcome

Welcome to the 2012 Annual Meeting of the Social Science History Association! I'm delighted that so many of you proposed papers and panels on "Histories of Capitalism," this year's theme. But I'm also pleased that the program, as usual, represents the entire range of the best work in social science history. Special thanks go to the 2012 Program Committee co-chairs and the network representatives for undertaking the difficult chore of assembling this exciting program.

Be sure to participate in the network meetings on Friday afternoon. SSHA is a highly decentralized organization and much of the planning for the next annual meeting occurs at these gatherings. The network meeting is your chance to influence next year's program.

On behalf of the Association, I would like to thank those who have contributed to the Charles and Louise Tilly Fund for Social Science History and encourage others to contribute. This fund supports travel grants for graduate students and a prize for the best graduate student paper at the annual meeting. Remember: today's graduate students are the future of the SSHA.

Please join us on Saturday evening for the Business Meeting, the Presidential Address, and the President's Reception. And thanks to the Division of the Social Sciences of the University of Chicago, which is sponsoring this year's reception. I hope to see you all there!

Have a stimulating meeting and enjoy Vancouver!

SSHA Membership

The Social Science History Association is an interdisciplinary group of scholars that shares interests in social life and theory; historiography, and historical and social-scientific methodologies. SSHA might be best seen as a coalition of distinctive scholarly communities. Our substantive intellectual work ranges from everyday life in the medieval world – and sometimes earlier -- to contemporary global politics, but we are united in our historicized approach to understanding human events, explaining social processes, and developing innovative theory.

The term “social science history” has meant different things to different academic generations. In the 1970s, when the SSHA’s first meetings were held, the founding generation of scholars took it to reflect their concern to address pressing questions by combining social-science method and new forms of historical evidence. Quantitative approaches were especially favored by the association’s historical demographers, as well as some of the economic, social and women’s historians of the time. By the 1980s and 1990s, other waves of scholars – including culturally-oriented historians and anthropologists, geographers, political theorists, and comparative-historical social scientists -- had joined the conversation.

New intellectual directions continue to emerge at the outset of the 21st century. Today’s SSHA incorporates a diversity of scholarly styles, with lots of crosstalk among them.

Inquiries about membership in the Social Sciences History Association should be directed to William C. Block, Cornell University - CISER, 391 Pine Tree Road, Ithaca, New York 14850. Email: block@cornell.edu.

SSHA 2013 Annual Conference

The Social Science History Association will hold its 38th annual conference in Chicago, Illinois, November 21-24, 2013. The conference will be held at the Palmer House Hilton. The organization's long-standing interest in methodology makes SSHA meetings exciting places to explore new solutions to historical problems. We encourage the participation of graduate students and recent PH.D.s, as well as more-established scholars, from a wide range of disciplines and departments.

Future dates and sites: November 6-9, 2014, Toronto, Ontario, Canada (The Fairmont Royal York); November 12-15, 2015, Baltimore, Maryland (Hyatt Regency Baltimore on the Inner Harbor); November 17-20, 2016, Chicago (Palmer House); November 21-24, 2019, Chicago (Palmer House).

Book Exhibit

The book exhibit will be located in Salons D & E of the Bayshore Grand Ballroom, on the Lobby Level of the Westin Bayshore. In addition to The Scholar's Choice, which will be representing several publishers, SSHA welcomes the following exhibitors: Duke University Press, the University of Minnesota (Minnesota Population Center), Cambridge University Press, and UBC Press (The University of British Columbia).

Vancouver Information

There's a wide range of things to do in Vancouver. Aside from natural beauty, Vancouver has a laid-back charm that makes it one of the most popular Canadian cities to visit. From museums to hiking trails, Vancouver has something for everyone.

1. Stanley Park

Covering 1000 acres, Vancouver's Stanley Park is a downtown sanctuary that offers city dwellers and visitors a multitude of indoor and outdoor activities. The park features an 8.8 km (5.5 mile) seawall that runs the perimeter and provides a perfect flat, paved path for rollerblading, biking, jogging and hiking. In addition, a petting farm, the Vancouver Aquarium and oodles of other recreational facilities are in Stanley Park.

2. Vancouver Art Gallery

Convenient to Robson Street shopping and right next door to the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver, the Vancouver Art Gallery features historic and contemporary international and Canadian art with an emphasis on BC's artistic heritage. Don't miss the works of Emily Carr, a cherished West Coast artist who depicted the landscape and villages of the First Nations cultures of BC.

3. Granville Island

Located at the edge of downtown Vancouver, this 37-acre island was once an industrial area but today is a charming destination for shoppers and culture seekers. Granville Island features a wonderful public market, many artsy shops and galleries, a theater, restaurants, a brewery and hotel.

Granville Island is open year-round and is free to visit.

Getting to or from Granville Island is a good opportunity to take the inexpensive Aquabus - a fleet of small electric ferries that transport people across False Creek and a great way to see and get around Vancouver.

4. Vancouver Aquarium

Visit Canada's largest aquarium, the Vancouver Aquarium, which houses more than 70,000 animals in 116,000 sq. ft. of facility space. Open daily, the aquarium charges an admission, but profits go toward supporting its mission to conserve aquatic life. Translink Bus and Skytrain public transit operates year-round.

5. English Bay

English Bay is located in the West End of downtown Vancouver. This waterside neighborhood is at once lively and quaint and a great spot to walk around, shop or have a drink. The main crossroads are Davie and Denman streets. Don't miss watching the sun set at the Boathouse Restaurant while enjoying a Bloody Caesar or a glass of BC wine and dinner at popular Bin 941 on Davie Street.

6. Grouse Mountain

Just a 20 minute drive out of downtown Vancouver, Grouse Mountain is a year-round destination for people looking for adventure or a just a great view. Ambitious people can tackle the Grouse Grind - a 2.9 km hike straight up the face of Grouse Mountain. Grouse Mountain is also a ski hill in winter, with 26 runs that offer a variety of terrains. Other attractions include the Grouse Mountain Skyride, ice skating, snowshoeing, helicopter rides, a conservation centre, a top-of-the-mountain restaurant and more.

Capilano Suspension Bridge is only 10 minutes away and on the same bus route. The two work well together as a day's worth of Vancouver adventure.

7. Capilano Suspension Bridge

The Capilano Suspension Bridge is more than just a bridge; there's actually a whole park with activities, history and culture. The park is a 20 minute drive outside of downtown Vancouver.

Built in 1889, the Capilano Suspension Bridge stretches 450 feet (137m) across and 230 feet (70m) above Capilano River. The park offers guided nature tours, the Kids' Rainforest Explorer program and Living Forest exhibit.

8. Robson Street

Robson Street is a popular shopping street in downtown Vancouver that has a good array of trendy shops for young people, such as American Eagle Outfitters, Guess, and Bebe, plus more upscale offerings, such as Armani Exchange.

Robson Street is near the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver and also boasts numerous restaurants, including a Milestones, Tsunami Sushi, Joe Fortes Seafood & Chop House, numerous Indian food restaurants and more.

9. Yaletown

Yaletown is a historic warehouse district on the edge of downtown Vancouver on False Creek. The area was gentrified in the 1980's and now has a hip, edgy feel, with a mix of residential, business, office, restaurants, boutiques, cafes, services and more. Try visiting Yaletown around noon or in the evening when cafes are open. Don't miss the Yaletown Brewing Company for a pint.

Yaletown is one of the Aquabus stops - a fleet of small electric ferries that transport people across False Creek and a great way to see and get around Vancouver.

10. Beaches

Vancouver has plenty of access to waterfront with 18 km or 11 mi of beach that will appeal to a range of visitors. Many of the beaches have boardwalks for cycling or blading, playgrounds, pools, kayak and windsurf rentals, volleyball courts, bbq's and all of the beaches have lifeguards on duty from late May to Labour Day. Three beaches are designated "quiet" and amplified music is prohibited.

11. Historic Gastown

Gastown is one of Vancouver's oldest districts and boasts many beautiful refurbished buildings, cobblestone lanes and the world's first steam-powered clock. People who enjoy slightly more eclectic shopping will enjoy the designers' shops, artists' studios, galleries plus restaurants and bars.

Visitors should be aware that Gastown borders a part of town that is known for the presence of drug users and everything that goes along with that. Best to have a good map and not meander without keeping your bearings.
